

PETER C. QUANTOCK

1930 S. York Street Unit 103
Denver, CO, 80210

240-601-4549
quantockpeter@yahoo.com

EDUCATION

MA candidate, Anthropology Program, University of Denver

BA in Ancient Studies, May 2007, University of Maryland Baltimore County

FIELD SCHOOLS

ArchaeoSpain, 2007, Clunia, Spain
Dr. Francesc Tuset and Dr. Miguel Ángel de la Iglesia, Directors

Field School in Historical Archaeology, 2006, University of Maryland,
Dr. Mark P. Leone, Director

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Public Archaeology, Colonialism, Cultural Resource Management, Settlement Patterns, African-American Archaeology

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Assistant Archaeologist, Gibb Archaeological Consulting, Annapolis, MD, August 2007-Present
Archaeology Teaching Assistant, University of Maryland Field School in Historical Archaeology, June-July 2007

Research Assistant, Port Tobacco Archaeological Project, August 2007-present

GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Graduate Teaching Assistantship, University of Denver, 2010-2012

Dean's Scholarship, University of Denver, 2010-2012

Community Foundation of Charles County Grant, 2009

The Explorers Club Washington Group Exploration and Field Research Grant, 2007

PUBLICATIONS

2011 Memory vs. Archaeology at Kingston. Northeast Historical Archaeology. Submitted February 2011. Co-Author with Kelley M. Walter and Anne T. Hayward.

2009 Low-Density Archaic Sites: Are We Finding but not Recognizing Them? Maryland Archaeology 45(1 & 2):51-57. Co-Author with Kelley M. Walter and Peter C. Quantock.

2009 Port Tobacco: A Shifting Settlement Pattern. Maryland Archaeology 45(1 & 2):58-66. Senior author. Co-Author with Anne T. Hayward and Kelley M. Walter.

PRESENTATIONS AND CONFERENCE PAPERS

Testing of a Middle Archaic Site at Elizabeth Hills, St. Mary's County, MD, Archaeological Society of Maryland Spring Symposium, Derwood, MD, 2010

Port Tobacco: A Shifting Settlement Pattern, coauthored by Anne Hayward and Kelley Walter, Middle Atlantic Archaeological Conference, Ocean City, MD, 2010

The Swann Site: Oysters on the half shell, Charles County Archaeological Society, Port Tobacco, MD, 2009

Lucy Henson's Laundering and Health Care Services, coauthored by Dr. James Gibb, Middle Atlantic Archaeological Conference, Ocean City, MD, 2009

Port Tobacco: Survey of a 350 year old town, Middle Atlantic Archaeological Conference, Ocean City, MD, 2009

Dividing the Space of this Place: Nineteenth-Century Port Tobacco, Maryland, coauthored by Dr. April Beisaw, Council for Northeast Historical Archaeology, St. Mary's, MD, 2008.

Single Component Late Archaic Sites in Prince George's and Cecil Counties, Maryland, Middle Atlantic Archaeological Conference, Ocean City, MD, 2008.

TECHNICAL REPORTS

The 2009 Field Session of the Archeological Society of Maryland:
Site Examinations at Port Tobacco

Peter C. Quantock, Anne Hayward, and Kelley Walter
Submitted to

The Archeological Society of Maryland
The Society for the Restoration of Port Tobacco, Inc, and
The Maryland Historical Trust

The 2008 Field Session of the Archeological Society of Maryland:
Site Examinations at Port Tobacco

James G. Gibb, April Beisaw, and Peter C. Quantock
Submitted to

The Archeological Society of Maryland
The Society for the Restoration of Port Tobacco, Inc., and
The Maryland Historical Trust

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Middle Atlantic Archaeological Conference
Archaeological Society of Maryland
Council for Northeast Historical Archaeology